
Reed College provides reasonable accommodations to students living on campus with a service or emotional support animals to live with students in their on-campus housing. Students should contact Disability and Accessibility Resources in order to provide documentation of a disability that supports the request for an assistance or support animal.

Students who receive approval for an emotional support animal as a disability housing accommodation are required to review and agree to the terms of this document S U L R U to bringing their animal into campus housing.

All animal handlers must be familiar with, and abide by, the following guidelines.

Definitions (per Animal Policy)

a. Handler: A handler is a person that assumes responsibility for an animal. This includes, but is not limited to, a pet-sitter or dog walker.

b. Owner: The person ultimately responsible for the licensing, behavior, actions, medical care, shelter, and general health of their animal.

c. Service Animal: A service animal is defined by the Americans with Disabilities Act to be limited to certain species, and individually trained to do work or perform tasks for the benefit of an individual with a disability, including, but not limited to, guiding individuals with impaired vision, alerting individuals with impaired hearing to intruders or sounds, providing minimal protection or rescue work, pulling a wheelchair, or fetching dropped items. For the purposes of this policy, the definition of a service 23 (e)-9 () TJ /TT2 1 Tf T* [(r)-7 (e)-11 (scu)11 (e)-11 ()5 (w)-4 (o)11 (r)-7 may include species other than dogs. Support Animals may be qualified by a letter from a licensed healthcare provider.

Support Animals are generally not permitted to accompany persons with disabilities in public areas, including Commons, but may reside in College housing when necessary to afford a student with a disability an equal opportunity to use and enjoy College housing.

e. Wildlife: Wildlife is any undomesticated, free-ranging vertebrate. This includes native and non-native animals, as well as any unlicensed feral domestic cats.

f. Pet: Any animal owned and/or handled by a person that is not specifically designated as a Service or Support Animal, and is not considered Wildlife. For purposes of this policy, the term
