

COURSE AUDIT REGISTRATION FORM for REED COLLEGE STUDENTS

This form is for current, full time, degree-seeking Reed College students seeking to audit an undergraduate course. Reed College students may not attend a course for which they are not registered. Complete and salphasion with four file of Tf/n B n B n S ap q0 0 60 0C2 deg5Ns5HLAWM registrar@reed.edu. Contact registrar@reed.edu or (503-777-7793) with questions. Refer to the Academic Calendar for deadlines.

Community members who are not current, full time, degree-seeking Reed College students must submit an online application to audit through the Office of Admission before they can register for a course as an auditing student.

Name (last, first, middle): Reed College ID #:
Registration (all information required - please print or type)
Semester & Year Course Code CRN Course Title Instructor's name (e.g. Fall 2023) (e.g. ANTH 211 F01) (e.g. 10091) (e.g. Intro to Anthropology) (e.g. Burt Reynolds)
Required Approvals:
"I have read and understand the information & guidelines detailed below"
Student Approval: _
:Date:
"I approve this student joining the above course as an auditor"
Academic Advisor Approval:Date:
additional course fees may apply.	vailable

Certain courses at Reed are not eligible to audit. These include but are not limited to independent study, HUM 110, and Audited courses carry no academic credit and are not recorded on a Reed College transcript. As such, they are not transferable thesis. Auditing MALS courses is restricted to MALS alumni.

Expectations for participation vary by course.

Last updated 08/23

to another institution.